DeKalb County School District High School Students Produce Talk & Entertainment Series

DEKALB COUNTY, GA (April 28, 2014) – “The Bridge!” The new, innovative teen series on PDS-TV24 from the DeKalb County School District (DCSD) will bring the best in talk and entertainment to cable television from a teenager’s perspective. “The Bridge” will begin airing on May 10, 2014, at 8:00 pm ( EST) on PDS-TV24 and will be available for viewing on the DeKalb Schools YouTube channel.

Targeting students and young people ages 13-25, “The Bridge!” features high school students from DeKalb County Schools set in a group forum where students discuss topics ranging from video gaming and college choices to fashion tips and budgeting finances. The teen series will also include interviews of celebrity guests and community leaders, as well as performances of DeKalb County School District students ranging from dance, singing, rapping, spoken word and ballet.

“I’m really excited that DeKalb County School District is able to provide our students with programming that gives them a voice,” said Superintendent Michael Thurmond. “The show is fun, informative, educational and entertaining. Watching “The Bridge!” should open up some discussion at the dinner table, and allow parents to engage in conversation with their children. I hope all of DeKalb County tunes in to watch the show. The students have done an amazing job.”
